

English

- Different forms of poetry inspired by 'Here We Are' by Oliver Jeffers
- Instructional Writing – 'Pudding Lane Cakes'
- Recount writing – inspired by Tuesday by David Wiesner
- Non-narrative – Links to history, information text, explanations.
- Grammar – Modal Verbs, adverbs, pronouns and fronted adverbials and relative clauses.

Maths

- Place value – Ones, tens, hundreds, thousands and tens of thousands. Compare and order 3 digit numbers, increasing to numbers up to 1,000,000.
- Mental and written methods – addition and subtraction
- Read Roman Numerals up to 1000
- Multiplication – times tables focus up to 12 x 12
- Multiplying and dividing by 10, 100
- Measurement – Length, Perimeter and Area
- Using the book 'Zero the Hero' to help with understanding of place value.

Physical Education

- Speed, Agility and Quickness
Building hand-eye coordination, body awareness and developing speed and strength.
- Dance – perform dances using a range of movement patterns
- Volleyball – developing simple tactics for attacking and defending

PSHE/Citizenship

- New beginnings – Studying the book 'Here We Are' by Oliver Jeffers
- Getting on and falling out
- Exploring school values

Stupendous Stuarts!

Offer Class Autumn 2020

MFL – French

Revisiting Key vocabulary and language skills linked to:

- Numbers to 30
- Greetings
- Colours
- Days of the week
- Months of the year

Religious Education

Why is Muhammad important to Muslims?

The importance of The Bible at Christmas

Computing

- Internet Safety:
Learn to use search technologies effectively
Use technology safely, responsibly and securely.
- Coding
To review coding vocabulary
To create a playable, competitive game.

Design Technology

- Food:
Learning about and creating a savoury meal that consists of a healthy and varied diet
- Mechanical systems:
How mechanical systems such as levers and linkages create movement

Music

As part of Farlington School's Outreach programme a specialist music teacher, Mr Dallimore has set a series of opportunities for children to perform rap and lyrical compositions

Art and Design

- Creating a 3D model of 'Stuart Period' house using paper mache
- Focus on drawing skills:
  - Use shading to add form to drawings
  - Develop own style of drawing
  - Continue using view finders to assist composition
- Draw people and faces proportionately
- Focus Architect: Christopher Wren

History

- A study of an aspect or theme in British history that extends pupils' chronological knowledge beyond 1066
- Understanding the conflict between monarchy and parliament during this period in History
- Learning about Significant events: Gunpowder Plot and Great Fire of London
- Comparing historical events
- Explore Britain at this time through role play
- Understand that language (either written or spoken) has changed over time and be able to distinguish past from present.

